BCA infra committee chief quits in a huff

Ahmedabad : In a setback for the Revival Group in the Baroda Cricket Association, one of its prominent members resigned from his post in a huff on Tuesday. Advocate Kaushik Bhatt stepped down from the post of chairman of BCA's grounds and infrastructure committee. He sent a letter to BCA president Pranav Amin announcing his decision. Bhatt said in the letter that the grounds and infrastructure committee was only a constitutional committee and it has no role to play in the day-to-day affairs of the BCA grounds and infrastructure. "I along with my fellow members have a strong feeling that we have been neglected and side tracked by the office bearers," tracked by the office bearers. Bhatt wrote in the resignation letter.'I felt that our committee is being kept out of the loop when it comes to many decisions related to the grounds and even the international cricket stadium. international cricket stadium. So, I stepped down from the chairman's post but I will continue as a member of the committee as the BCA members have elected me, Bhatt, who had contested polls from the Revival Group, said.

Dil ka Rishta— Her daughter's heart gave life to her 'son'

AHMEDABAD: Suratresident Amita Patel lost a daughter but gained a sonall with a change of heart.
Patel, who was distraught after losing her fashion designer aspirant daughter Jahnwi, takes heart in the fact that whenever she really will call her. "Lalji has Jahnwis heart beating inside him. Who will call her. "Lalji has Jahrwisheart beating inside him. Who else will understand a mother's feelings than a loving daughter's heart?" says Amita. Amita and 26-year old Lalji's is a 'dilk a rishta' which began after Amita and her husband decided to donate their 21-year-old fashion designers organs following her brain death in aftermath of an accident. Her heart went to Lalji who was at the doorstep of death with his vital organ falling. This one gesture united two strangers in a wey that Lalji and Amita have become family and Amita have become family for life. Lalji is now a 'son' to Amita who was even part of her husband's cremation.

August 13 is celebrated as the World Organ Donation Day, and their story underscores how organ donation can connect families and lives.
